

EARL

P&P Studio

EARL sideboard, paired with EARL dining tables and chairs, is attractive from both a design and a craftsmanship point of view. It is the subtle combination of lacquered and varnished wood, rounded corners and slim structure, all of which are distinctive signs of elegant design.

STRUCTURE

Structure and legs in solid wood and veneer on particles board, doors and handles in lacquered MDF board

FINISHING

Structure and legs in walnut or stained oak, doors and handles in lacquer
